Quintessence Publishing has been serving the dental community for 70 years with its books, journals, multimedia, and symposia. What began as an attempt to distribute information in postwar Germany when no literature existed has developed into a highly sophisticated network of dental publications, educational videos, symposia and seminars, and multimedia software to help dentists worldwide treat their patients at the highest possible level.

Since our inception in Germany, we have expanded our network to 24 countries with local publishing houses and license partners, which has allowed us to grow our family of authors, contributors, partners, and friends globally.

This January we would like to celebrate our anniversary by bringing together this global family to share their knowledge with you. We have merged seven meetings into one big event! Over three days, we will feature 45 sessions and workshops with 85 international speakers in endodontics, conservative dentistry, periodontics, implant dentistry, oral surgery, and prosthodontics. Furthermore, we are proud to host the 1st Women Dentists Leadership Conference as well as the 1st Dentory Symposium, which will exclusively feature educators under 40 years of age, giving a platform to the next generation.

No anniversary event is complete without a big party, so in addition to the world-class program, we invite you to celebrate with us at our anniversary party! We hope that you will join us in Berlin on this special occasion.

As the first all-in-one biocompatible and bioactive dentin substitute, Biodentine™ fully replaces dentin wherever it’s damaged.

Biodentine™ helps the remineralization of dentin, preserves the pulp vitality and promotes pulp healing. It replaces dentin with similar biological and mechanical properties.

Improving on Biodentine™ clinical implementation, you can now bond the composite onto Biodentine™ in the same visit and perform the full restoration in a single session.

To enjoy the clinical benefits of the first and only dentin in a capsule, ask your dental distributor for Biodentine™.
