Periodontal and Peri-implant Plastic Microsurgery— Minimally Invasive Techniques with Maximum Precision

September 13–14, 2019 | Dr H.W. Haase CE Center, Batavia, IL

ABSTRACT

The current challenge of periodontics is to meet patients' high esthetic demands in the search for correction of periodontal and peri-implant soft tissue defects. Periodontal microsurgery is a minimally invasive procedure performed with microinstruments and magnification systems (loupe/operative microscope). The accuracy of the technique and the primary wound closure pattern results in faster healing, absence of scars, and highly esthetic results. Periodontal microsurgery can be used to correct gingival or peri-implant recessions in single or multiple shallow or deep defects.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Discuss the importance and advantages of periodontal and peri-implant plastic microsurgery
- Introduce microinstruments and the magnification systems for the microsurgical techniques
- Present and practice periodontal microsurgical step-by-step techniques for root coverage in single or multiple shallow or deep defects

CONTINUING DENTAL EDUCATION CREDITS

Workshop attendees may receive up to 12 hours of CE credit.

ABOUT THE SPEAKERS

Glécio Vaz de Campos, DDS, received his DDS degree from São Paulo State University in 1982. After specializing in periodontics and prosthetics, several years of clinical practice led him to explore new techniques focusing on periodontal plastic surgery. In 1996, he was qualified on this subject at the Microsurgery Training Institute in Santa Barbara, California, and introduced periodontal and peri-implant plastic microsurgery in South America. Dr Campos has written 15 book chapters regarding periodontal and peri-implant plastic microsurgery, as well as articles in numerous publications in Brazil and abroad. He is the coauthor of the recently published Portuguese book Periodontal and Peri-implant Plastic Microsurgery—Minimally Invasive Techniques with Maximum Precision (Quintessence, 2019).

Cláudio Julio Lopes, DDS, received his DDS degree from UNICID School of Dentistry in São Paulo in 1989 and his specialty degree in Periodontics and Implantology. He worked as an adjunct professor in the Department of Periodontology at Camilo Castelo Branco University from 1990 to 2000 and was a board member of the Academy of Microscope Enhanced Dentistry from 2013 to 2015. He completed a regenerative microsurgery training at the São Paulo University Medical School in 2017. In addition to maintaining a private practice, he teaches microsurgery principles for periodontics, implantology, and endodontics. He is the coauthor of the recently published Portuguese book Periodontal and Peri-implant Plastic Microsurgery—Minimally Invasive Techniques with Maximum Precision (Quintessence, 2019).
